Looking Forward: Challenges & Strategies for Global Mobility Policies and Practices

The economic climate poses new and significant challenges for global organizations already adapting to a fast continuum of change. Companies are employing multiple strategies to balance talent development and cost control, but are they using all the tools at their disposal?

Our 2010 Asia Pacific Roundtable Series in Singapore, Hong Kong and Shanghai consists of best practice presentations and interactive discussions that will put you at the forefront of managing successful international assignment programs. If you would like to stay current on the key trends and best practices in global mobility, please join us at one of our roundtable sessions listed below:

- Singapore, Wednesday 2 June | 9.00am to 3.00pm | Raffles Hotel
- Hong Kong, Wednesday 23 June | 9.00am to 3.00pm | Renaissance New Harbor Hotel
- Shanghai, Thursday 29 July | 9.00am to 1.00pm | Four Seasons Hotel

Senior leaders from the Cartus and Primacy APAC team will be joined by other industry experts to discuss a range of topics across all three events including:

- Trends in assignment volume, policy types and destination locations
- Major relocation challenges reported by corporations and employees
- Best practices in managing expatriate programs from leading corporations
- Maximizing expatriate ROI
- Managing talent and leadership development
- Getting more from your global mobility programs
